A hand-drawn storyboard panel. On the left, a large, round, balding character with a distressed expression is being poked in the back of the head by a cat's paw. The paw has several small cat faces on it. To the right, three other characters are watching through a window or screen. The first is a girl with long hair, the second is a boy with spiky hair, and the third is a character with a large, bulbous nose. Above the boy is a circled 'A' with 'Pos' above it. Above the character with the bulbous nose is a circled 'B' with 'Pos' above it. In the center, there is a circled 'ADJ' with an arrow pointing to the character's head. The date 'MAY 10 2013' is written in the bottom right corner of the drawing area.
